Dear Captains Dutra and Ceriotti,

I write today to express the support of the 12,500 pilots of United Airlines in your current negotiations with LATAM-Brazil management. While the global airline marketplace has become more competitive, the basic principles of maintaining a worthwhile career and terms and conditions that promote a high quality of life for pilots should never be part of the competition.

I ask that you please keep us informed of the progress of your negotiations. I understand that you are in the process of requesting a conciliator to assist in reaching a mutually satisfactory solution. If such conciliation does not result in an agreement between your pilot groups and LATAM-Brazil management, please let us know.

In unity,
